HONORÉ WILLSIE'S

Strongest and Best Romance of the West is

"A wholesomely readable story. More, a thrilling one. . . . Each chapter is vital."—Boston Transcript.

JUDITH OF THE GODLESS VALLEY

By the author of "The Enchanted Canyon"

A novel of the rough, virile, actual West of today—"a story of rodeo and round-up, of wild riding and fierce passions, of mountain grandeur and clean winds—and always a story of youth's struggle to find the secret of happiness. . . . So human, so challenging, so honest, that it will be rated as one of the notable novels of the year."

—John Clair Minot, Boston Herald. $2.00.

"A strong and vivid book about real men and women. It moves ahead relentlessly and takes you with it."—Helen Cody Baker, Chicago Daily News.

An 8-page pamphlet describing Mrs. Willsie and her work is yours postpaid for the asking.

ROBIN

By FRANCES HODGSON BURNETT

Author of "The Head of the House of Coombe," etc.

This novel, with its companion volume, "The Head of the House Coombe," is sure of a welcome by all lovers of true romance. The Literary Digest says: "Never has Mrs. Burnett written with greater charm, more directly from her heart, more surely." For the week-end hostess, for Birthdays—and of course for Christmas!—give "Robin" and "Coombe" boxed as a set, in cloth or leather. Cloth, per copy, $2.00; leather, per copy, $2.50.

Three Novels for Lovers of Romance:

TREMENDOUS ADVENTURES

By DION CLAYTON CALTHROP

Full of variety and adventure, this novel develops from a beginning of old-fashioned romance into a story ultra-modern in its conclusion. $1.90.

NORTHWEST!

By HAROLD BINDLOSS

"A dashing story of adventure in the wilds of the Canadian Rockies . . . simply chock-full of incident."—Philadelphia Ledger. $1.75.

MY LADY APRIL

By JOHN OVERTON

"A charming romance of Bath in the days of Beau Nash," is the London Times' characterization of this story of young love. $1.90.

Zona Gale, in a front-page review in the New York Times, says of

LOVE AND FREINDSHIP

By JANE AUSTEN

"Henceforth it is a part of literary experience to have read 'Love and Freindship.' First, for the joy of it, for the return of zest. For the forgotten faculty to ripple with inward laughter. . . . Here Jane Austen is—human, laughing, alive, taken unaware. . . ."

"Love and Freindship" is a newly discovered story of Jane Austen's youth, followed by a History of England and several other characteristic fragments. With an Introduction by Gilbert K. Chesterton, Cloth, $1.75; Chintz Jacket, $2.00.

A Tale of Love Laughing at Locksmiths

MARTIN PIPPIN IN THE APPLE ORCHARD

By ELEANOR FARJEON

"A fairy tale for grown-ups . . . a work of rare beauty. . . . A pity it is overlooked by those who seek the things of beauty in current literature."—John Clair Minot, Boston Herald. $2.50.

By the author of "Poems by a Little Girl"

SHOES OF THE WIND

By HILDA CONKLING

New and delightful verse written by Hilda in the two years since publication of the earlier volume. Amy Lowell, in the N. Y. Evening Post says: "Hilda Conkling writing poetry is no child despite the calendar. She is that ageless thing, a genius, for the moment at least, and even if she prove unable to carry the proud title to maturity." With charming new portrait frontispiece, $1.60.

For All Who Love Lincoln

LINCOLN'S LAST DAY

By JOHN W. STARR, Jr.

A vivid, authentic account of the last day of Lincoln's life, written by one who has consulted every available source of information. With 8 of Lincoln's best portraits, $1.50.

The Season's Outstanding Book for Young People:

THE VOYAGES OF DOCTOR DOLITTLE

By HUGH LOFTING

Author of "The Story of Doctor Dolittle"

The kindly little Doctor—dearly loved by children and now as much a household word as the famous Alice—goes on another amazing voyage.

Clara Whitehill Hunt, before the American Library Association Conference, said:

"'Alice in Wonderland,' 'The Water Babies,' the 'Jungle Books' belong to the immortals in children's literature but if I should return to earth fifty or a hundred years from now I should not be surprised to find the children also reading 'Doctor Dolittle.'" With 2 full pages in color, striking picture jacket and 18 unique black-and-white illustrations by the author, $2.50.

The most successful book for children since the "Just-So Stories," published 1920: "THE STORY OF DOCTOR DOLITTLE" Ninth Printing. $2.00.
